

Kelly Corbi, Vice President Operations – Northwest Hospital

Kelly Corbi is currently serving as the Vice President of Operations at Northwest Hospital, a LifeBridge Health Center since July 2013. She is responsible for hospital strategy and outcomes. Her current operational oversight includes Surgical Services, Pulmonary Services, Sleep Centers, the Center for Wound Care and Hyperbaric Oxygen Treatment, Hospitalist Division, Surgery Division, Anesthesia, LifeBridge Critical Care at Northwest, Levindale Chronic a Hospital and Sinai Hospital, Patient Experience at Northwest and Levindale, Clinical Excellence and Operational Improvement (PI and Lean), Imaging Services and the Herman & Walter Samuelson Breast Center.

Prior to LifeBridge Health, Kelly served as the Chief Administrative Officer at Meritus Health responsible for Strategic Planning and Development, Human Resources, Organizational Development, Community Education, Marketing & Communications, as well as Philanthropy. Prior to Meritus Health, Kelly had progressive leadership roles as a Senior Leader in Human Resources at United Health Group, and HCR/ManorCare.

Kelly has a MBA from Mount Saint Mary's University and an undergraduate degree from Penn State University. She resides in Howard County with her husband and three children.